

1) When we present ideas to students, we should be very clear, so that they.

2) Speakers of English talk to each other in a different way

3) There are certain expressions that creep into your English

4) Also, when not native speakers conduct conversations between themselves, they use English other wise.

5) For instance, don't expect the English to use your name in conversation

6) There are some obvious problems that come from English grammar

* English people seem rude in the way they interrupt each other

№2

The question is, "How do British people recognize a Russian speaker of English?"

Firstly, there are some lexical items that are particularly Russian

Expression that creep into your English, that are somehow created between your Russian and English. Secondly, the grammar. The most people don't know what is the complex object and there's some difficulties with it. For instance you can use some articles in a wrong way in your speech in a wrong way. And the last one how Russian people act in a conversations. Actually they wait until someone finishes speaking and don't normally interrupt them.

Opposite side English people can seem rude in the way they interrupt each other. So the Russian people not interrupting, how English people do.

Speaking

1) About Hobby. I'm really interested in music. In most cases I'm listening to rock music. I admire with some groups.

In stressful situation I prefer to listen to them. Because of them I calm down. In a short words I can say that I can't live without music. It's part of my life. In my childhood I was interested in drawing. I was sitting and drawing some characters from cartoons. And I really enjoyed it. I want that my future profession was related with it. Also I tried myself in a dombyra. I could play very well. But I during time I lost my interest to it and I had a new interest. This is a guitar. My old brother has his own instrument. He offered me to try to play on it. To be frank I like it so much. I had a big desire to learn play on this instrument. Sometimes I came to his house and listen how he is playing. His playing ^{is it} sounds so good. There's a goal to buy a new guitar and start to play. The first person who inspired me to this instrument It's my brother.

a) What do I prefer about foods? I'm this type of person who has a sweet tooth. I reckon I'm not alone. Actually I can eat different types of food but I love Kazakh traditional foods most. I can't stand with beshbarmaq and Kazy. What can be better? Of course I want to try French, Japanese, Chinese and Italians traditional foods. It's curious to me. But at first I would like to try French croissant with a cup of coffee. And some Italian pizza. I tried pizza but I'm talking about Italian one. There are some interesting Japanese foods. For instance: tonpoxi, ramen, moti, sandwich with a strawberry and some drinks. I didn't try yet but I think it would be so yummy. Also I hadn't try the Chinese tea. Now I know in Kazakhstan people, especially old people love to drink a white tea, I mean with a milk. I don't like it and it would be really great to try the Chinese.

4. жалауы

1. Problem

2.

3. Connections

4. Connections

5. Instance

6. Grammar

7. Instance

1. The way they present ideas

2. The way they conduct conversations

3. By questions that wrap into English

4. Minutes with "a" and "the" needed

5. By answering

6. By joining talking

Speaking

13. I need a job. Job is an action that a human do for a certain interval in the same time and where he gets money for. And money are the tool which we can't live in the world without. We need them to get food, to buy or build a house and live as all. Having a job is life's importance and that's why I need a job.

Usually I have an experience as morning. In summer I worked in a shop. My shift was from 15.00 to 20.00 and that's hours were so long and boring. I was selling an easy second shop was so long and boring. So maybe I don't want to have a job, but want a lot of money. But I think it's bad. We live in the world there need money. In my opinion, that's even depressing in some ways. But in near future we may be necessary to more. Development of technologies will change our lives.

... We're going to spend the half of our lives to work and earn money. That's why students think a lot about it. I have several choices of professions:

1. The translator. I think it's very interesting, but also scary. Translators are necessary everywhere. Although the profession is very responsible and mistakes can cause very big consequences.
2. The teacher. In my opinion, it's very interesting to work with children, but it's also very difficult.

Қатысушының шешімдерін толтыруға арналған өріс / Поле для заполнения решений участника

1. present

2. expressions

3. conversation

4. for instance

5. Grammar

6. Interrupt

Writing.

There are differences between Russian speakers of English and British speakers. For example first lexical items that Russian practically.

Instead of homework you have "home tasks" and you don't call yourselves "the company". In English we never use the "we" correctly.

In conversation. Vocabulary of Russian grammar and own vocabulary have big difference.

When you talk to people, you act from English people too. You wait until someone finishes talking. Don't interrupt them. English people can seem rude when they interrupt someone.

When you want to begin talking, you need start with the other's person's name.

Speaking. My future profession.

I haven't thought about my future profession yet, but I believe that I will choose good and useful profession for my future. Probably my future profession will be interpreter. English is my favorite language and I started to learn English since 2nd grade.

I want to solve and translate the problems of documents between countries. I hope I will find the best job of my life. In principle, if I study English very well, you can become successful.

You can understand native language of British people. It is very cool when you recognize with culture without translator. My parents also support me, quite the reverse they are glad. It is really good when you choose your favorite language.

Think about Hobbies.

There are so many hobbies in the world. Popular hobbies are singing, drawing, dancing, collecting something etc. My hobby is dancing, but also cooking. I've been dancing since 9 years old. Cooking also. My first meal was fried potato and first desert was twix cake. I think it is very professionally in that time. Now I remember cake was so delicious. My parents have used so that I'm cooking at home and always waiting for my meal or deserts. I don't know why, but I love more cooking than cleaning home. I have usually inspiration to cook from videos on Instagram or from my mom's advices. I hope I will continue my hobby in the future and stop loving them.

Listening

1 present

5 instance

2

6 grammar

3 expressions

7 interrupt

4 conversations

Writing

1. The way they present ideas.

2. The way they conduct conversations.

3. By expressions that creep into English.

4. Mistakes with 'the' and 'a' articles.

5 By interrupting

6 By starting talking.

Speaking

5. Talking about hobbies

Usually people don't know how they can spend their free time. Most of people have hobbies in this situation. For example: swimming, dancing, singing, cooking, playing games, playing music instruments, walking out with friends or with yourself, painting, and etc. If people have hobbies, they can spend time without boredom. Also they can develop themselves. Spending time with yourself can make you calm. Hobbies can distract from all thoughts.

Speaking

14. My future profession.

If I talk about my future profession, I always have stress. I haven't still chosen a profession, but I think that I will have been going to a medical university. In future maybe I want to be a dentist. Because they are helping for human and also they earn a lot of money. In future they can provide themselves and their family. It's always difficult to choose a profession. But all we must have a job and profession. That impossible without it. I hope that I can be a good dentist.

- 1) When we present ideas to students, we should be very clear, so that they speakers of English talk to each other in a different way.
- 2) There are certain expressions that creep in to your English.
- 3) Also, when not natives speakers conduct conversations between themselves, they use English other wise.
- 4) For instance, don't expect the English to use your name in conversation.
- 5) There are some obvious problems that come from English grammar.
- 6) English people seem rude in the way they interrupt each other.

110) The first reason why British people recognize a Russian speaker of English is the lexical items that they use in their speaking. Also the more obvious difficulties that come from grammar, for example, when you speak English you never use articles, I mean "the" and "a" correctly 100% of the time. Finally, you act differently from English people, you wait until someone finishes speaking and don't normally interrupt them because of this they can seem impolite.

Speaking.

Theme "talk about hobbies" and "What do you prefer".

Firstly, let me introduce myself. My name is Aitor kem, I'm 15. To be frankly, I don't have any hobbies that would surprise you, but if collecting flower petals and making mini gifts sounds as like a hobby it's just that. Also I enjoy to cleaning everything when I'm annoyed or just have a bad mood. In the free time I'm used to listening to podcasts, or turning on the streams on the background. Instead I also put a pleasant when I'm cleaning my shoes, but I'm not sure that it sounds as like a 'hobby', but in the different way "hobby" is the action that makes you feel calm, am I right? In my childhood I used to draw, but I lost my interest for that until I turned 13. Also I finished the music school, but actually I formally believe that I can't play well as I could. Finally I reason that this skills will help me in the future.

What am I prefer? I can consider this question on the different ways. For instance, mostly I prefer listening to indie-rock and my favourite music is "girl in red", "The Neighbourhood". If we talk about the weather I'm mad of downpours, firstly I got incredible feeling when I'm listening to the rain sounds, also I like to smell the wet ground after the downpour. My favourite genre is the detective and romantic, but actually I'm not interested in films. Also my worst habit is that I can't myself read any book. I prefer watching to movies or cartoons. If we talk about the fashion, I'm into the classic style, and whole of my wardrobe includes the items like from 19 century.

My favourite seasons is the autumn, cause in this time I've got inspiration to write poems, romanticize drinking coffee and just enjoy walking around the leave fall. This remarkable season ensuring enchanting impression.

My parents support me and glad for my future profession. But I know, that I would look for other ways to earn money, if I wouldn't like my profession.

1. I like watching interesting movies. And usually I do it with my friends. We meet at someone's home or at movie rooms. I don't like horror films, cause I am afraid of them very much. I prefer science fiction or fantasy movies. Because they are very interesting. Actually, I watch films with my fav actors, if they are interesting.

stening.

present

2 expressions

3 conversations

4 instance

5 grammar

6 interrupt

writing

The first difference is lexical items. There are expressions that creep into English that are somehow created between Russian and the English they learn. There are the more obvious difficulties that come from grammar, like 'home task', 'the company' and etc. They never use 'the' or 'a' correctly. And Russian speakers talk to people differently from English people. They wait until someone finishes speaking and don't normally interrupt them. Russian speakers may also seem impolite when they begin talking.

Speaking

14. In fact, I really don't know who I want to be. But time moves quick and I must to choose my future profession, cause there are exams soon. In childhood I wanted to become a doctor, but now I know that it isn't what I want. So I thought that, I would be become a teacher. Many teens don't want that and someone late, but I want to try.

Listening

- 1) When we present ideas to students, we should be very clear so that they
- 2) Speakers of English talk to each other in a different way
- 3) There are certain expressions that creep into your English
- 4) Also, when not native speakers conduct object between them selves, they use English other wise
- 5) For instance don't expect the English to use your name in conversation
- 6) There are some obvious problems that come from English language
- 7) English people seem rude in the way they interrupt each other

Russian speakers of English are subtly influenced. English teachers don't know what a complex word is. Then, there are the more obvious difficulties that come from grammar. For example you speak English but you never use the "or" or "and" correctly at the time, so you guess. English people can seem rude in the way they interrupt each other.

Speaking

1) I talk about my hobbies. I love read a book. And it's my hobby. Fantasy books so pretty. Second I like sing and dance. And I watch a movies. My favourite movie is "Harry Potter". And I can play guitar. I have. So it's my favourite hobbies.

2). I going to the movies. It's time I have watch "Vagande forever" movies with my friends. And "Eola Holmes" very good movies. In New year watch "Harry Potter" interesting and it's my favorite movies.